

MU's INTERNATIONAL EXPECTATIONS

International Programs and the Colleges and executive officers at MU have a mandate to internationalize through several initiatives while sharing a common set of expectations. Those expectations pertain to roles of the administration, faculty, students, and staff.

- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have developed a succinct and inclusive international plan that will be reflected in the institution's campus wide strategic plan and in operational plans for schools and relevant centers.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have in place concrete and operational policies and procedures for enhancing and managing the emerging international activities on and beyond the campus.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have shown a marked increase in the number of students with study abroad experience, who opt to take a second language and will have developed creative options for students.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have curricula for undergraduate student education that reflects a global society and be able to issue international certificates along with undergraduate degrees.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have demonstrated marked increase in the number of undergraduate and graduate students with international research experience.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have in place a system and protocol for recruiting top flight internationalized faculty and will have committed fiscal resources for that purpose.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have in place amended promotion and tenure policies that acknowledge and embrace internationalization activities by faculty members as important in gaining tenure.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have shown a marked increase in the number of Fulbright Scholars and global scholar awards, faculty lead study abroad experiences, especially by internationally focused and engaged faculty.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have demonstrated a marked increase in the volume of externally funded international research, education and outreach activities.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have experienced an upturn in the scope and intensity of relations with state and federal agencies and other institutions based on funding opportunities as well as opportunities to develop public policy.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have developed a campus atmosphere and climate whereby the engagement of students from other countries, and throughout the United States, is noticeably enhanced.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have registered an increase in the number and scope of quality (inclusive) festivals and celebrations.
- The internationalized UNIVERSITY will have in use a well crafted message to articulate the value of the international initiatives to help uplift those with needs in the less developed and developing countries (of our ever shrinking world).
